GUIDANCE: This supplementary information will be attached to DD Form 1396 – 1. This supplement has been designed to prevent the disclosure of sensitive information to foreign nationals and to provide for a collector's assessment of subject. Sensitive information of an operational nature which must be tightly controlled (paragraph 7b, DIAI 58 – 13) should not be included in this supplement. Where practicable, the following information will be furnished:

51. POLICE RECORD (Other than minor violations).

52. RELIGION – Effect of subject's religion or religious connections on his actions, military advancement, political views, etc.

Sec. 3.3(b) (1);(b)(6);(b)(3):10 USC 424

53. ACQUAINTANCES AND RELATIVES – Apparent influence of acquaintances and relatives on subject's views or career.

Sec. 3.3(b) (1);(b)(3):10 USC 424

54. CHARACTER – Subject's character, strengths and weaknesses, intelligence, loyalty, judgment, ability to communicate, leadership ability, and influence. Significance of individual in shaping international policies of his country.

Subject is very intelligent, and quick witted. He is somewhat autocratic in his military relationships, but not in his family relationships. He is able to communicate complex legal concepts in laymen's language.

Sec. 3.3(b) (1);(b)(3):10 USC 424

55. POLITICAL ORIENTATION – Attitude towards United States and other countries. Remarks and actions of subject toward representatives of the United States and its allies, and to representatives of nonaligned nations and Communist bloc nationals. Political activities and attitudes, important political contacts, party affiliations, potential political influence in country in the event of a change in government.

Sec. 3.3(b) (1);(b)(3):10 USC 424 He is basically apolitical, but in the Argentine domestic political spectrum would be considered a moderate right wing anti-peronist. In the international context, he is staunchly anti-communist. Sec. 3.3(b) (1);(b)(3):10 USC 424 except he feels the Carter administration is mistaken in the application of its human rights policies. He is a strong advocate of human rights as a concept, but feels strongly that the Argentine legal system is unable to respond to the challenge of subversive tactics. Therefore, extraordinary measures are justified to preserve the rights of the vast majority of the Argentine population. He is cordial but not friendly with members of the communist-bloc diplomatic missions, but he expresses this cordiallity in a cold, formal manner. He avoids affliliations and contacts in the Argentine domestic political environment. As the senior ARGAF legal expert he is the most likely person to become the new Minister of Justice when the incumbent is released from that position.

Sec. 3.3(b) (1);(b)(3):10 USC 424

Among the rank and file of the ARGAF, he is considered to be tough and fair as a military judge.
